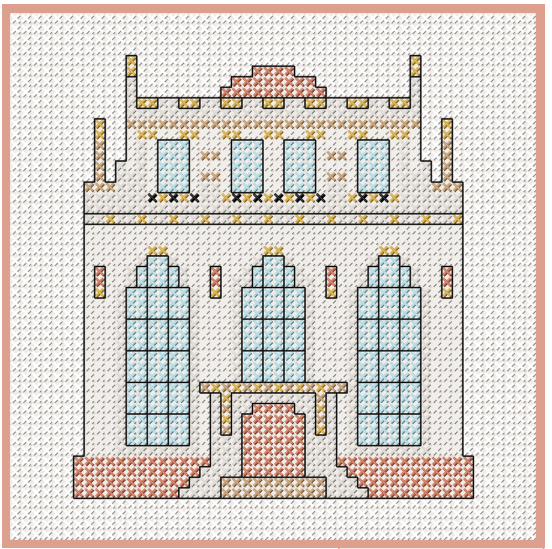
× XSTITCHLABS ×

Hanseatic Collection

Cross-stitch the cities of the Hansa



1358 stitches • Medium difficulty

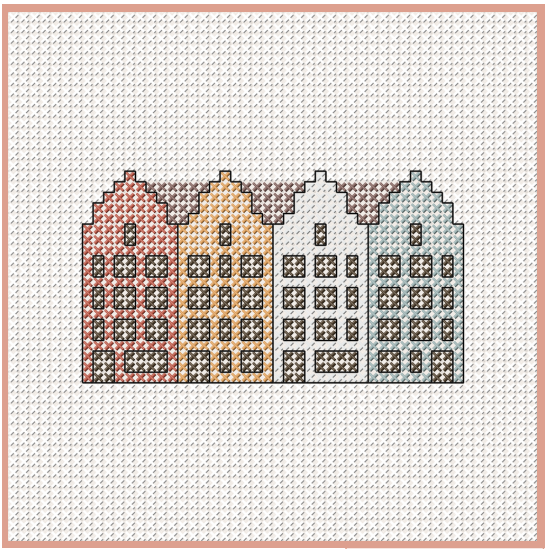
Artus Court, Gdańsk

A grand Gothic merchant's hall on the Long Market, its ornate Renaissance facade with stepped parapet has graced Gdańsk since the 14th century.

× XSTITCHLABS ×

Hanseatic Collection

Cross-stitch the cities of the Hansa



939 stitches • Medium difficulty

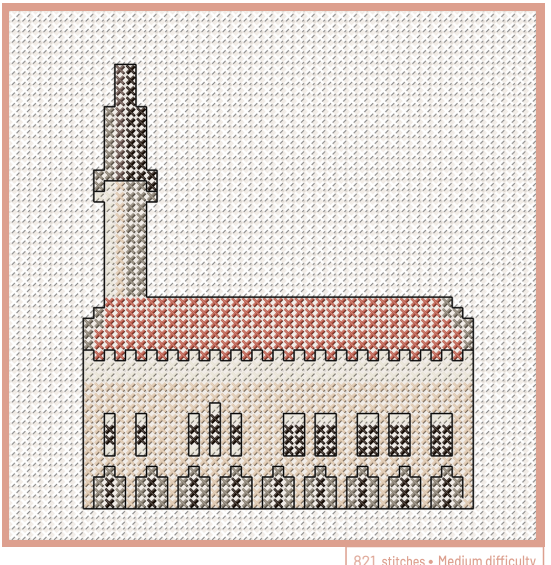
Bryggen, Bergen

Bergen's colourful row of Hanseatic wooden warehouses along the harbour, a UNESCO World Heritage Site and one of Norway's most iconic landmarks.

× XSTITCHLABS ×

HANSEATIC COLLECTION

Cross-stitch the cities of the Hansa



821 stitches • Medium difficulty

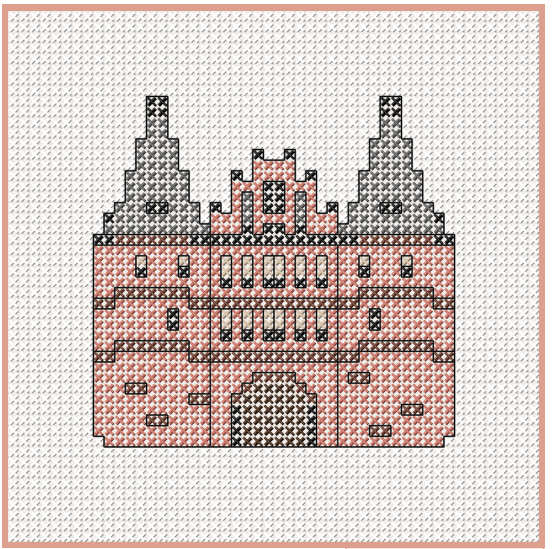
Town Hall, Tallinn

The only surviving Gothic town hall in Northern Europe, built in 1404, its slender tower topped by 'Old Thomas' has watched over the city for six centuries.

× XSTITCHLABS ×

Hanseatic Collection

Cross-stitch the cities of the Hansa



867 stitches • Medium difficulty

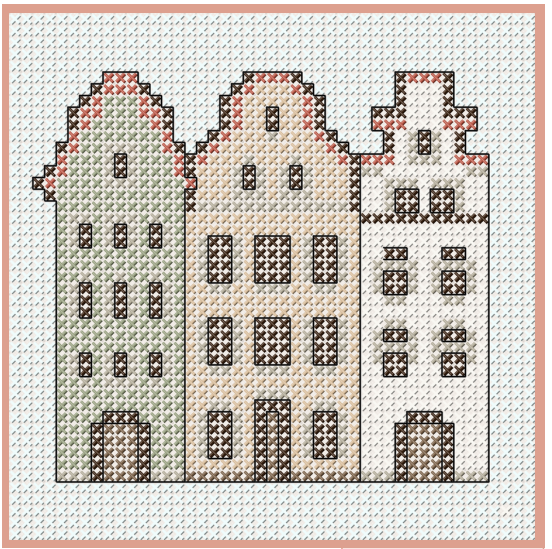
Holstentor, Lübeck

Lübeck's iconic 15th-century city gate and symbol of Hanseatic power, with its distinctive leaning twin towers in red and dark brick.

× XSTITCHLABS ×

Hanseatic Collection

Cross-stitch the cities of the Hansa



1182 stitches • Medium difficulty

Three Brothers, Riga

A unique complex of medieval houses dating from the 15th and 16th centuries, the oldest residential buildings in Riga.

.